

CYBERSECURITY INCIDENT

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Biolidics Limited (the “Company” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) wishes to announce that the Group has recently had a cybersecurity incident. The Group’s payroll software vendor (the “Vendor”) was subject to a hacking incident by a hacker group who identified itself as GHOSTR Hacker Group (the “Hacker”) which resulted in system downtime in the software application (the “Application”) and the unauthorised access of personal data of the Group’s current and previous employees/ directors. The Company took steps to contain the situation by working closely with the Vendor and as at the date of this announcement, the Vendor has restored the Application.

The Company has reported the cybersecurity incident to the Singapore Police Force and the Personal Data Protection Commission. The Company has also reported to the Singapore Police Force on a failed attempt by the Hacker to extort US dollar 3,000 to be paid in bitcoins by the Company.

The Group has started the process of notifying individuals whose data were affected and will continue to work with the Vendor in identifying opportunities to strengthen the cybersecurity. The Company will be conducting a review of the incident to ensure that the data that is entrusted to the Vendor remains safe and secure.

The Company is fully committed to responding to this incident transparently and proactively. The investigation is still ongoing, and the Company will provide further material updates as and when there are new developments.
